

UNIVERSITY OF GUELPH-HUMBER
Basis and Timing of Offers of Admission

The University of Guelph-Humber may begin making offers of admission in February to applicants with high academic standing. Early offers of admission may make use of 3U and/or 3M grades. Offers of admission will be made on a rolling basis until late May. All students with an admission average of 75% or higher will be considered for admission. Student Profile Forms will be reviewed in May to consider applicants who fall within 5% of the established cut-off. All offers are conditional upon the completion of all secondary school diploma requirements including a final admission average as specified in the offer letter. The final admission average is calculated using six 4U and/or 4M courses, including required subjects. Offers of Admission to the Media Studies program are based on the applicant's academic record and faculty interview and program orientation. Decisions will be made for Media Studies applicants in April.
